Fig. S2. Six oligonucleotides used as templates to determine misincorporation rates of different DNA polymerase reagents. The oligonucleotide pairs carry an A, its deaminated form hypoxanthine (H); a C, and its deaminated form uracil (U); and a G and its deaminated form xanthine (X), respectively.