Heads of household mortality rate and "years of plague"

Crude mortality rate: Number of dead divided by the mean of the present on the year and on the previous year.

Data from 46 out of 50 registers of the database: Rates of the first year of each of the 4 series cannot be determined due to the lack of information on the previous year.

Labels: years in Table 1
Pink labels: "years of plague"